

Our ideal objective is to have a 60 bed, purpose built property on our land in Rainham, Kent. Not only would this meet the criteria of CQC (Care Quality Commission), but would also meet our well known high quality standard. The cost to establish this fully equipped home will be in the region of £4.5 million pounds.

However, if a building became available that meets the required standards and only the necessary renovations needed to be made, this could be more cost effective and the facilities would be available a lot sooner to those on our waiting list. There are more than 600 people who have registered their names with us for care, which demonstrates there is a great future need and this figure is constantly increasing. Brothers and sisters have been in contact with us and made us aware of various sites, but so far these have not been viable due to either not meeting the CQC standards or not having enough bedrooms. But, knowledge of the area is invaluable to us, so please keep these suggestions coming.

Due to the kind donations and legacies received from brothers and sisters we now have close to £1 million pounds in our donation accounts. With continuing outright donations, interest-free loans and other various methods of charitable planning, we will be able to reach our target enabling us to commence building within a short time, Jehovah willing. If anyone wishes to help financially, please contact our head office for further information.

Update on Charitable Funded Care

In addition to donations in support of our new project, donations toward our Charitable Funded Care arrangement are now enabling us to care for a number of elderly ones. These are brothers and sisters the council refuses to fund. If you know of anyone in a position to benefit from this arrangement, there are places available, so please contact the Admissions Department at our Head Office.

PROMOTING NEW CARE FACILITIES

A series of meetings are underway in the South East to make brothers and sisters aware of the current objectives of Jah-Jireh Charity Homes, particularly with regard to opening a home in that area. All are welcome to come to these meetings regardless of age.

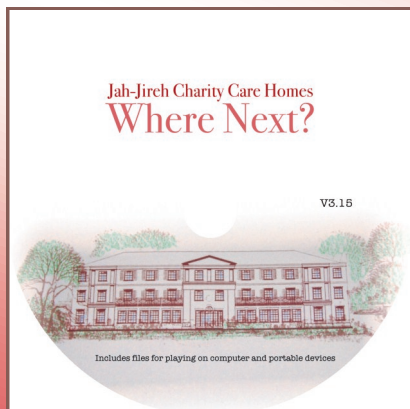

One such meeting took place recently in Maidstone, arranged and chaired by an enthusiastic friend of Jah-Jireh. Four of our trustees were present at this meeting which included a discussion of the needs of our elderly ones in the South East, a financial update, a question and answer session and the preview of our new DVD (more details below).

If you would like to get involved or know more about this or any of our other projects or you would like to become a 'friend of Jah-Jireh' please contact us at our Head Office on 01772 633380 or visit our website www.jah-jireh.org for further information.

NEW DVD RELEASE

We are happy to announce the release of a new and updated Jah-Jireh DVD. This DVD will be helpful to anyone considering coming into one of our homes and anyone who has a deep concern about the elderly and a desire to see us look after our own people. The DVD demonstrates the scope of care available not only in Britain but also what is developing in many other countries. You will find answers to many of your questions and information on the different ways of giving support. However, as a reminder, this DVD must not be featured in any congregation meeting nor must any brothers and sisters be coerced into giving support, always remembering the principle "Jehovah loves a cheerful giver." - 2 Cor. 9:7,8,11.
